Physics Graduates

Approximately 50% of the UMM graduates from 1964-1998 have taken some graduate or professional school training. About 62% of the physics graduates from 1964-1998 have taken some graduate or professional training. Annually, approximately 27% of UMM graduates use their undergraduate major as a springboard for direct entry into graduate/professional schools.

Graduate/Professional School Programs entered by Physics Graduates:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Applied Physics</th>
<th>Electrical Engineering</th>
<th>Medicine</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Astronomy</td>
<td>Engineering</td>
<td>Meteorology</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Astrophysics</td>
<td>Laser Physics</td>
<td>Nuclear Engineering</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Business</td>
<td>Mathematics</td>
<td>Nuclear Power</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Computer Science</td>
<td>Mechanical Engineering</td>
<td>Physics</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Graduate/Professional Schools Attended by UMM Physics Graduates:

- Carlson School of Business
- Cornell U
- George Washington U
- Iowa State U
- Kent State University
- Mankato State U
- Massachusetts Institute of Technology
- Michigan Technological U
- Moorhead State U
- Ohio State U
- Oregon State U
- Plattsburgh State U
- Purdue U
- Southern Illinois U
- Southwest Missouri State
- St. Cloud State U
- St. Mary’s College
- SUNY, Stony Brook
- The Citadel
- Troy State
- U of California
- U of California, Berkeley
- U of California, Davis
- U of Colorado
- U of IL, Urbana-Champaign
- U of Maryland
- U of Massachusetts, Lowell
- U of Minnesota
- U of MN, Duluth
- U of Nebraska, Lincoln
- U of New Mexico
- U of North Dakota
- U of Oregon
- U of Utah
- U of Washington
- U of WI, Madison